— CHARTER SCHOOLS — HOME EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Tennessee charter schools continue to flourish and serve as an example for innovation, accountability and change in public education. Charter schools allow the freedom and flexibility to be more innovative in their approach to educating children but are still held accountable for advancing student achievement.

HOME SCHOOLING

WHO IS MTHEA?

The Middle Tennessee Home Education Association (MTHEA) is a ministry dedicated to serving home educators in the Middle Tennessee area by providing a network of support. Our goal is to nurture, educate and motivate families that home school. We are committed to help protect the right of the parent to "train up a child in the way they should go."

HIGHER EDUCATION

TENNESSEE PROMISE - TNPROMISE.GOV

Beginning with the class of 2015, all students in the state of Tennessee can attend (for FREE) one of the state's 13 community colleges, 27 colleges of applied technology, or other eligible institution offering an associate's degree program. Tennessee Promise provides students a last-dollar scholarship that will cover tuition and fees not covered by the Pell grant, the HOPE scholarship, or state student assistance funds.

Students are also assigned a mentor to help guide them, are required to complete just 8 hours of community service per term enrolled and maintain at least a 2.0 GPA.

(Tennessee Promise does not apply to all schools listed below. Check TNPromise.gov for more information)
